EXPERIENCE

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
WEB DEVELOPER III
(May, 2011 - present)

I am currently employed at the University of Southern California in the IT department as one of a team of web developers and designers working on sites that support thousands of students, faculty, staff and alumni each day. My projects have included creating and designing interfaces for the school calendar entry system, developing sites for research centers and designing sites for the Emeriti center.

PROLOGUE FILMS
WEB DEVELOPER
(May, 2010 - present)

I contract with the motion graphics firm Prologue Films in Venice, CA. I led the conversion of their website to a Rails based HTML5 site. I maintain their web presence and worked on internal projects, ranging from interactive presentations to a HR Resource management app.

FREELANCE REPUBLIC
CO-FOUNDER / WEB DEVELOPER AND DESIGNER
(March, 2009 - May, 2010)

I worked with a group of DJMA graduates at a small design firm in Venice, CA that we started. Our projects ranged from a mid-size social networking site, to e-commerce stores, to portfolio sites. Our projects focused on clean design and code and attention to detail in both in the work we produced and the attention given to clients.

KAA DESIGN GROUP
WEB DEVELOPER
(March, 2008 - March, 2009)

I worked on a wide range of sites, from small portfolios to restaurant sites to a large art merchant's catalogue.

DEPARTMENT OF DESIGN | MEDIA ARTS
DEPARTMENT WEBSITE DEVELOPMENT
(August, 2007 - March, 2008)

I worked with a team of three and department chair Casey Reas to develop, redesign and maintain the department's presence on the web.
